

Protect your business with a farm workers' compensation policy.

When you purchase a farm workers' compensation policy from Nationwide®, you gain coverage from a company with decades of agribusiness workers' compensation expertise. Here's an overview of the offerings and advantages of working with Nationwide.

Find out if your business is eligible.

To be eligible for a Nationwide farm workers' compensation policy, your business must have:

- Two or more employees and $50,000 in payroll
- A safety and training program in place
- An existing Farmowners or Commercial Property/General Liability policy with Nationwide
- In business for more than five years

We offer something more.

When you work with Nationwide, you gain access to:

- Superior customer service, including a 24/7 customer service line and expert legal representation on litigated cases
- Workers' compensation claims expertise to help save businesses money while getting employees back to work safely and quickly
- Quality risk management and safety support, based on the individual needs of accounts

California Farm Bureau Discount

Members of the California Farm Bureau are eligible to receive up to 7.5% discount on Nationwide farm workers' compensation policies.

Farmer members are also eligible to receive the CalFarm® endorsement on their Nationwide farm policy at no additional cost.

The difference in choosing Nationwide.

With Nationwide, insured farms and ranches gain access to a powerful set of resources and support to ensure they're receiving quality protection.

UNDERWRITING EXPERTISE

- Decades of experience writing workers' compensation for agricultural risks
- Single underwriting point of contact for all farm-related lines of business
- Deep understanding of the California agricultural industry

WORKERS' COMPENSATION CLAIMS EXPERTISE

- Detailed medical bill review at no extra charge
- First-Fill pharmacy program saves insureds and their employees money and paperwork
- Engaged leadership team supporting claim professionals to ensure proactive management of losses
- Dedicated claims staff certified to work in California workers' compensation
- Pharmacy, physical therapy and diagnostic partnerships focused on medical cost control
- Return-to-work programs geared toward getting employees back to work safely and quickly

RISK MANAGEMENT AND SAFETY SUPPORT*

- Education and support in helping insured businesses reduce injuries and lower claims costs
- On-staff expertise in industrial hygiene, workers' compensation, fleet, and food safety
- Access to extensive online resources
- Online safety training material
- Regional safety seminars available on a wide variety of safety and workers' compensation topics
- Assistance and education to support Cal/OSHA compliance

Based on individual needs of accounts*

SUPERIOR CUSTOMER SERVICE

- 24/7 customer service line to report claims
- Workers' compensation regulatory consultant and technical director to help ensure state compliance
- Expert legal representation on litigated cases

Contact us to learn more about Nationwide's farm workers' compensation program.

First Name Middle Initial Last Name

Agency Name

License number: Agt Lic Nbr

Phone: (123)456-7890

Email

Website/URL

Nationwide®

Protect your business with a farm workers' compensation policy.

When you purchase a farm workers' compensation policy from Nationwide®, you gain coverage from a company with decades of agribusiness workers' compensation expertise. Here's an overview of the offerings and advantages of working with Nationwide.

Find out if your business is eligible.

To be eligible for a Nationwide farm workers' compensation policy, your business must have:

- Two or more employees and $50,000 in payroll
- A safety and training program in place
- An existing Farmowners or Commercial Property/General Liability policy with Nationwide
- In business for more than five years

We offer something more.

When you work with Nationwide, you gain access to:

- Superior customer service, including a 24/7 customer service line and expert legal representation on litigated cases
- Workers' compensation claims expertise to help save businesses money while getting employees back to work safely and quickly
- Quality risk management and safety support, based on the individual needs of accounts

California Farm Bureau Discount

Members of the California Farm Bureau are eligible to receive up to 7.5% discount on Nationwide farm workers' compensation policies.

Farmer members are also eligible to receive the CalFarm® endorsement on their Nationwide farm policy at no additional cost.

The difference in choosing Nationwide.

With Nationwide, insured farms and ranches gain access to a powerful set of resources and support to ensure they're receiving quality protection.

UNDERWRITING EXPERTISE

- Decades of experience writing workers' compensation for agricultural risks
- Single underwriting point of contact for all farm-related lines of business
- Deep understanding of the California agricultural industry

WORKERS' COMPENSATION CLAIMS EXPERTISE

- Detailed medical bill review at no extra charge
- First-Fill pharmacy program saves insureds and their employees money and paperwork
- Engaged leadership team supporting claim professionals to ensure proactive management of losses
- Dedicated claims staff certified to work in California workers' compensation
- Pharmacy, physical therapy and diagnostic partnerships focused on medical cost control
- Return-to-work programs geared toward getting employees back to work safely and quickly

RISK MANAGEMENT AND SAFETY SUPPORT*

- Education and support in helping insured businesses reduce injuries and lower claims costs
- On-staff expertise in industrial hygiene, workers' compensation, fleet, and food safety
- Access to extensive online resources
- Online safety training material
- Regional safety seminars available on a wide variety of safety and workers' compensation topics
- Assistance and education to support Cal/OSHA compliance

Based on individual needs of accounts*

SUPERIOR CUSTOMER SERVICE

- 24/7 customer service line to report claims
- Workers' compensation regulatory consultant and technical director to help ensure state compliance
- Expert legal representation on litigated cases

Contact your Nationwide agent to learn more about our farm workers' compensation program or find a local agent at FarmAgentFinder.com.

Nationwide®